

Algorithms

An algorithm is a set of instructions to do a task.
You can program a computer to follow an algorithm by entering commands for it to run.

Logical thinking is being careful to write an algorithm correctly.

